SECOND PART: APPLICATION FORM IN WORD FORMAT

Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (EMRIP), members from three indigenous socio cultural regions

Appointment to be made by the Human Rights Council at its 49th session

My experience working with the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights and at the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights in Geneva on issues of indigenous peoples, allowed me to know and understand from within the work, the mandate of the institutions and different mechanisms of human rights in the regional system, and those of the United Nations system.

In 2017, I obtained the Senior Indigenous Fellowship. I worked in the Indigenous Peoples and Minorities Section, formulating and supporting the execution of the human rights training program for indigenous peoples. The program contributes to developing the capacity and expertise of indigenous representatives in the United Nations system and mechanisms dealing with human rights in general and indigenous issues in particular so that they are in a better position to protect and promote the rights of their communities internationally. The fellows and I participated in the EMRIP sessions and the sessions of the human rights treaty bodies, where we had the opportunity to present our statements.

In recent years, I have participated in the permanent forum of indigenous peoples and have been presenting research-based information for thematic reports to the Special Rapporteur and other human rights bodies.

3. ESTABLISHED COMPETENCE (200 words limit)

Nationally, regionally or internationally recognized competence related to human rights. (Please explain how such competence was acquired.)

Working with the IACHR, allowed me to get a better understanding of the situation of Indigenous peoples in the countries of the Americas by studying, investigating, and analyzing cases related to human rights violations, precautionary measures, that concluded with the corresponding report for the commission or the Court consideration on possible human rights violations in different countries of the Americas. Organize on-site visits, draft special reports on the general or specific situation of human rights of the OAS member countries for the consideration of the IACHR. Participate in IACHR sessions, working meetings with States, petitioners, indigenous authorities, and leaders of indigenous peoples during the sessions. Assist and advise the working group on the draft of the American Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples of the OAS

I would like to point out the greatest achievement of my work in the IACHR was to expand the framework of case studies on indigenous issues within the executive secretariat of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, which allowed for more cases related not only to individual rights of indigenous peoples within the inter American system, but also collective land rights, territories, natural resources, consultation, political rights, freedom of expression, health rights among others.

Dear Sirs,

I am pleased to present my candidacy and express my interest in response to the call for applications for the position of independent United Nations experts of the Human Rights Council to be appointed at the forty-ninth session of the Council, for the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (EMRIP), a member from Central and South America, and the Caribbean.

I am a member of Miskitu people from Nicaragua, a lawyer with a Masters of Laws in Indigenous Peoples Law and Policy from The University of Arizona, USA, with a Postgraduate Degree in Family Rights and extensive experience on universal and regional human rights systems.

I have extensive experience in the field of Human Rights and Indigenous peoples in the local and international files. I worked as a human rights specialist at the Executive Secretariat of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights (IACHR) of the Organization of American States (OAS) in Washington, and at the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights in Geneva as Senior Indigenous Fellow. Working with the IACHR at the Rapporteur on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, allowed me to get a better understanding of the situation of human rights in the countries of the Americas by studying, investigating, and analyzing cases related to human rights violations that concluded with the corresponding report for IACHR consideration and also participate in the different stages of the procedure of the cases before the Inter-American Court of Human Rights; prepare memorials and draft observations.

In Nicaragua, I worked as coordinator of the process of demarcation and titling of communal lands of the indigenous peoples on the Caribbean coast of Nicaragua. Within the framework of the project, the safeguard policies were enforced, ensuring the delimitation and titling of 23 indigenous territories, thus guaranteeing the right of communal property to 305 communities. The rights of the land have been one of the main demands of indigenous peoples, essential for their survival and development as peoples. This process was developed with the full participation of indigenous peoples, a unique process without precedent in Latin America.

I worked on the formulation and consultation processes with communities, indigenous organizations in the elaboration of different legislative proposals; such as the reform of the Political Constitution of Nicaragua in 2014, Traditional Ancestral Medicine Law, Family Code, Statute of Autonomy, and other initiatives of laws.

SECOND PART: APPLICATION FORM IN WORD FORMAT

Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (EMRIP), members from three indigenous socio cultural regions

Appointment to be made by the Human Rights Council at its 49th session

I have developed, trained, seminars, and attended different conferences on human rights and indigenous peoples in Nicaragua and other countries in America and Europe. From indigenous peoples, I have prepared reports on the situation of indigenous peoples' rights for the inter-American system and the system of united nations, the Special Rapporteur on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples of the United Nations, the Expert Mechanism, and the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues. I am a member of different platforms, indigenous organizations, and networks.

On the other hand, my vision is that the EMRIP, according to its mandate, should continue as a specialized technical institution advising, analyzing, providing assistance to states and indigenous peoples, and other international organizations. It is essential to promote better participation for Indigenous Peoples in the United Nations Human Rights Council, especially those who live in Central and South America, and the Caribbean have very little access. Overcome the gap between the declaration of the rights of Indigenous Peoples and implementation.

In short, my personal experiences, training, professional knowledge at the national and international level in the area of human rights, allowed me to develop skills and the expertise necessary to comply with the mandate for this position with independence, impartiality, personal integrity, and objectivity.

Sincerely,

Anexa Alfred.
