

Count Us In - Breaking the Cycle of Invisibility in Data

15 February 2022, Tuesday (Online), 3:00 PM - 4:30 PM (Central European) (GMT-5:00) - 09:00 AM in New York / (GMT+8:00) - 10:00 PM in Manila
(GMT-5:00) - 09:00 AM in Bogota / (GMT+3:00) - 01:00 PM in Nairobi

About the event

A platform for exchanging views among data users and providers on the operationalization of human rights-based approach to data (HRBAD) principles, and to listen to the voices of marginalized populations rendered invisible in official data.

Opening Remarks

Ilze Brands Kehris
Assistant UN Secretary-General
for Human Rights, OHCHR

Moderator

Craig Mokhiber
Director
New York Office, OHCHR

Speakers

Trina Reynolds-Tyler
Data Director
Invisible Institute

Humberto Cote Orozco
Coordinator
National Administrative Department of Statistics (DANE), Colombia

Tarak Shah
Data Scientist
Human Rights Data and Analysis
Group

Mauricio Mitchell Humphries Raizal (Afro-Caribbean ethnic group) industrial economist
Colombia

Gemma Parojinog
Director of Policy Advisory Services Commission on Human Rights of the Philippines

James Karanja
Director
Intersex Persons Society of Kenya

Magdalena Robinson
Founder and President
Cebu United LGBT Sector

Elizabeth Kamundia
Assistant Director
Kenya National Commission on Human Rights