Subject: Call for applications for two additional vacancies of special procedures mandate holders to be appointed at the 25th session of Human Rights Council

The Secretariat of the Human Rights Council presents its compliments to all Permanent Missions to the United Nations Office at Geneva, international organizations or their offices, national institutions, non-governmental organizations, and other human rights bodies, and has the honour to inform them that pursuant to the resignation of two special procedures mandate holders, two additional vacancies are to be filled at the 25th session of the Human Rights Council (3 – 28 March 2014):

1. Working Group on the issue of discrimination against women in law and in practice, Member from the Latin American and Caribbean Group; and
2. Working Group on the use of mercenaries as a means of violating human rights and impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination, Member from the Asia-Pacific Group

Individual applications, together with a motivation letter, for any of the above two vacancies should be submitted by Monday 6th January 2014 (midnight, GMT) through the on-line application procedure, which includes a web-based survey and an application form in Word. Updated information on the selection and appointment of mandate holders, and the on-line application procedure is available at the following web page link:
