United Nations Voluntary Fund for Victims of Torture

medical, psychological, social, legal and humanitarian aid to survivors through civil society grants

Direct assistance to children, women, elderly persons, migrants, persons deprived of liberty, persons with disabilities, LGBTI, minorities, indigenous people

Flexibility to adjust project implementation according to evolving needs and accountability to track required changes

Share good practices about innovative methods to deliver services

Analyse trends of impact on torture survivors

Disseminate UN Human Rights Office guidance about COVID-19 impact on torture