

30 CARTOONS TO ILLUSTRATE THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

The UN Human Rights Office together with the Cartoon Movement celebrate the 70th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by launching a cartoon contest. Cartoonists from all over the world submitted their illustration of one or various articles of the Declaration. Ultimately, one cartoon per article was selected by the public.

Discover the final 30 cartoons that best illustrate the UDHR!

The UN Human Rights Office is offering you the possibility to print and use any of these cartoons for an exhibition in your city, school or company. Don't hesitate to share your plan with us at udhr70@ohchr.org
