Screening of the film

“The Rights of the Child in the Digital Age: A Download from Children Around the World” with introduction by Prof. Amanda Third and Emma Keltie, Institute for Culture and Society, University of Western Sydney

13.50-14.45

Speakers’ Corner – Parallel informal discussions on:

- 🎧 '3-D' Literacy for Digital-Age Rights with Ms. Anne Collier, Co-Director
ConnectSafely.org

A research study why safety and efficacy in today's very social digital media environment require a tri-fold literacy – media, digital and social literacy – and what this literacy entails and enables.

- 🎧 Protecting young people online... from themselves? with Mr. Kristof Claesen, Press and Public Affairs Manager, Internet Watch Foundation

The research conducted by the IWF – the UK hotline for dealing with child sexual abuse imagery online - not only provides a snapshot of the amount of self-generated images online, it also highlights the extent to which these images and videos are being taken from their original online location and are re-uploaded on different locations on the internet.

- 🎧 Empowering children affected by armed conflict with ICT with Mr. Ernst Suur,
Program Development Manager, War Child Holland

War Child Holland uses creative and recreational methods with and for children in conflict, including radio, video, photos and computers. These tools are used to empower children and young people, give them an opportunity to raise their voices, tell their stories and ‘claim their rights’.

- 🎧 Connected Dot Com: Integrating Children’s Voices and Online Experiences into Policy with Mr. Patrick Burton, Executive Director, Centre for Justice and Crime Prevention, South Africa

A research study into young people’s navigation of online risks, experiences of online harms, and how best to integrate these experiences into relevant policy-making processes.
