

Lardux Films
in association with the CSIA Nitassinan présente

WARRIOR WOMEN

A film by Christina D. King & Elizabeth A. Castle

Directed by Christina D. King et Elizabeth D. Castle
Photography Andreas Burgess and John G. Larson, Music Giulio Carmassi and Bryan Scary, Editing Koiko Deguchi ACE and Kristen Nutile,
Production by Anna M Pitman, Christina D. King, Elizabeth A. Castle, Executive Producers Sally Jo Fifer and Shirley K. Snee,
This film has been developed with the support of Sundance Institute,
A Castle King LLC and ITVS production, in association with Chicken & Egg Pictures, Women Make Movies, Vision Maker Media

WARRIOR WOMEN

a film by Christina D. King & Elizabeth A. Castle

2018 - 64 mn - documentary - USA - color

Original English Version with French Subtitles - DCP - 16/9

Screening of Warrior Women Honoring Indigenous Women Protecting the Land and Water

Friday 18 October 2019

1.00 pm – 3.00 pm

Conference Room XXII

Palais des Nations

Genève

First part : screening of Warrior Women

Second part discussion with the participation of :

Madonna Thunder Hawk, Lakota activist,

AIM Leader, and co-founder of Women of All Red Nations (WARN)

Marcella Gilbert, Lakota activist

Elizabeth A.Castle, Director & producer of Warrior Woman

Michelle Cook, Diné Lawyer,

Women's Earth and Climate Action Network (WECAN)

« Divest, Invest, Protect Campaign »

Moderated by Pierrette Birraux, Board Member of Docip

www.facebook.com/warriorwomenlefilm

This event will focus on the following issues:

Women Protecting the Land and Water

The Side Event will be held in English. The movie is subtitled in french