Questionnaire re. General Assembly resolution 68/268

The General Assembly, in resolution 68/268 on “Strengthening and enhancing the effective functioning of the human rights treaty body system” which was adopted on 9 April 2014, “requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly, on a biennial basis, a comprehensive report on the status of the human rights treaty body system and the progress achieved by the human rights treaty bodies in realizing greater efficiency and effectiveness in their work, including the number of reports submitted and reviewed by the committees, the visits undertaken and the individual communications received and reviewed, where applicable, the state of the backlog, capacity-building efforts and the results achieved, as well as the situation in terms of ratifications, increased reporting and the allocation of meeting time and proposals on measures, including on the basis of information and observations from Member States, to enhance the engagement of all States parties in the dialogue with the treaty bodies” (paragraph 40).

In preparation of the above-mentioned report, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) would appreciate receiving:

- a) Comments by States on the implementation of General Assembly resolution 68/268 in general; and
- b) Information on any action taken to follow-up on and/or implement provisions of General Assembly resolution 68/268, which are specifically addressed to States.

Inter alia, the following paragraphs of General Assembly resolution 68/268, are of particular relevance, and are copied below for ease of reference.

“The General Assembly,

2. Encourages States parties to consider the possibility of using the simplified reporting procedure, when offered, to facilitate the preparation of their reports and the interactive dialogue on the implementation of their treaty obligations;

7. Recommends the more efficient and effective use of the meetings of States parties, inter alia, by proposing and organizing discussions on matters related to the implementation of each treaty;

8. Strongly condemns all acts of intimidation and reprisals against individuals and groups for their contribution to the work of the human rights treaty bodies, and urges States to take all appropriate action, consistent with the Declaration on the Right and Responsibility of Individuals, Groups and Organs of Society to Promote and Protect Universally Recognized Human Rights and

Fundamental Freedoms<sup>1</sup> and all other relevant human rights instruments, to prevent and eliminate such human rights violations;
10. Encourages States parties to continue their efforts to nominate experts of high moral standing and recognized competence and experience in the field of human rights, in particular in the field covered by the relevant treaty, and, as appropriate, to consider adopting national policies or processes with respect to the nomination of experts as candidates for human rights treaty bodies; [...]

13. Encourages States parties, in the election of treaty body experts, to give due consideration, as stipulated in the relevant human rights instruments, to equitable geographical distribution, the representation of the different forms of civilization and the principal legal systems, balanced gender representation and the participation of experts with disabilities in the membership of the human rights treaty bodies;”
