

fidh

Civil Society Dialogue on the Occasion of Second Annual UN Forum on Business and Human Rights

The International Corporate Accountability Roundtable (ICAR), the Center for Research on Multinational Corporations (SOMO), the Business and Human Rights Resource Center, and the International Federation for Human Rights (FIDH) are pleased to announce our collaboration in hosting the Civil Society Dialogue on the occasion of the Second Annual UN Forum on Business and Human Rights.

This Dialogue will occur on 2 December, 2013 in the United Nations Palais de Nations in Geneva from 15:00 to 18:00 CET.

The Dialogue is intended to provide an opportunity for civil society participants to identify key trends, needs and challenges for effective implementation of the UNGPs and advancement of respect for human rights in the context of business activities, and to identify strategies to harness and communicate civil society perspectives in the specific panels organized during the Second Annual Forum on Business and Human Rights.

A link to the concept note is available here.

A link to the survey is available here.

The survey will be open for submissions from 6 November, 2013 to 20 November, 2013. Apologies, but the survey will not be translated due to funding and time limitations.

For information, please contact Amol Mehra at amol@accountabilityroundtable.org.