

INTERPOL

Project CHILDHOOD :

Transnational Cooperation and Identification of victims and perpetrators

Project Childhood

An initiative against Traveling Child Sex Offenders

Funded by the Australian Government

4 year
program
(2010-2014)

INTERPOL

INTERPOL

UNODC

World Vision

INTERPOL

Protection

UNODC
&
INTERPOL

Prevention

World Vision

Protection Pillar Objectives

INTERPOL

UNODC
&
INTERPOL

“Enhance law enforcement capacity for national and transnational action to identify and effectively act upon travelling child-sex offenders in the Mekong”

Enhanced Legal Framework

Capacity Building
And Training

National and Regional Cooperation

Operational Support

INTERPOL

Legal Framework (Objective 1)

Strengthening Thai laws to fight travellers who sexually abuse children

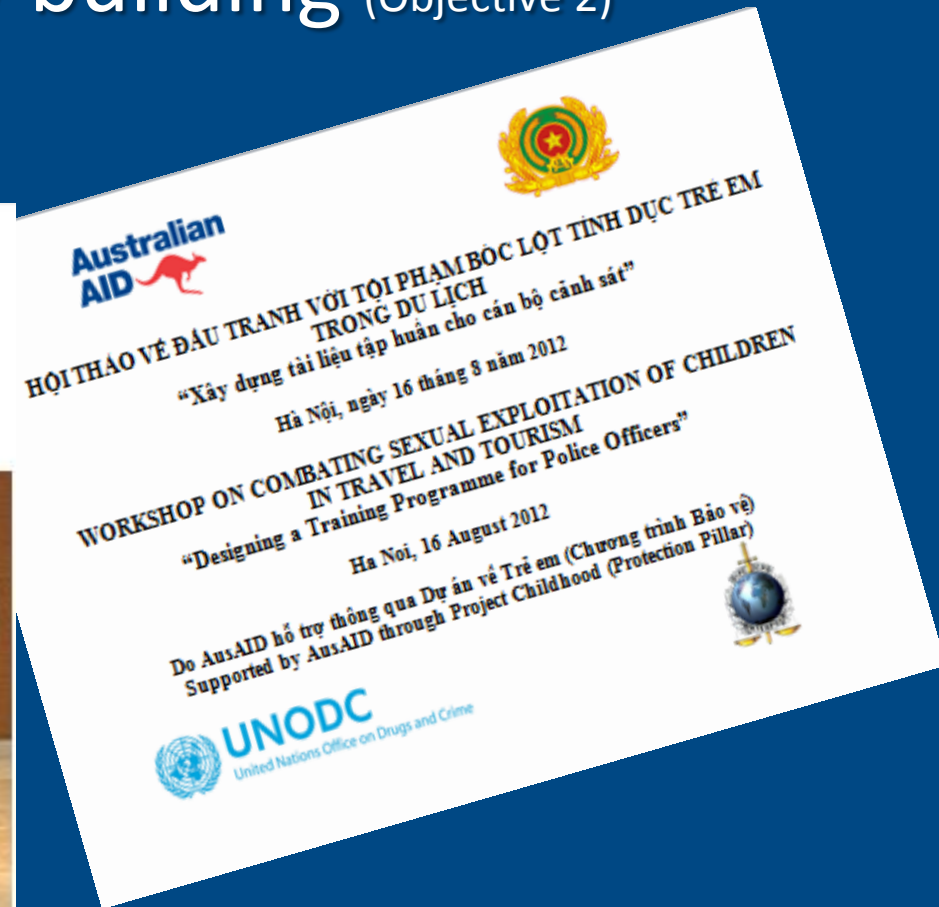

Capacity building (Objective 2)

Project Childhood (Protection Pillar) and Royal Thai Police develop training course to investigate sexual exploitation of children

Participants at the July 2012 workshop

Regional Cooperation (Objective 3)

INTERPOL

Project Childhood Coordination Committee (PCCC)

- 1st meeting 10 July 2012

South East Asia Working Party of the INTERPOL Specialist Group on Crimes against Children meeting

- Bangkok 19-21 March 2013

Operational Component (Objective 4)

INTERPOL

Support to operational team

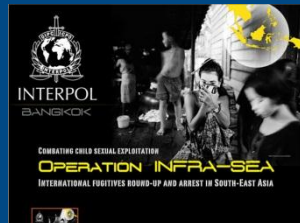

- Establish or strengthen team
- Focus on team located in an identified “hot spot” area

INTERPOL's support in transnational cooperation

- International information exchange
- Interpol Global Complex for Innovation
- Notices
- i-24/7 secure network
- General Assembly resolutions
- International Operations
- Databases (ICSE)

INTERPOL

INTERPOL

Thanks for your attention

Adèle DESIRS
Criminal Intelligence Officer
Crimes Against Children Team
INTERPOL General Secretariat
a.desirs@interpol.int

Annethe AHLENIUS
Project Coordinator
Project CHILDHOOD (Protection Pillar)
INTERPOL Liaison Office for Asia and South Pacific
a.alenius@interpol.int