

Enough is enough

Privatisation & public services: A conversation with current and former UN Special Rapporteurs

Date: 19 October

Time: 8am EDT, 12pm UTC, 2pm CEST, 8pm PHST

Join us for an online discussion bringing together current and former UN Special Rapporteurs to reflect on the impacts of privatisation and on renewed momentum and strategies for the public provision of services related to economic, social and cultural rights, including health, education, water and sanitation, and housing.

Moderator:

Magdalena Sepúlveda Carmona, Executive Director of the Global Initiative for Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, and former UN Special Rapporteur on extreme poverty and human rights

Speakers:

Mr Philip Alston, former UN Special Rapporteur on extreme poverty and human rights

Ms Koumbou Boly Barry, UN Special Rapporteur on the right to education

Mr Olivier de Schutter, UN Special Rapporteur on extreme poverty and human rights, and former UN Special Rapporteur on the right to food

Ms Leilani Farha, former UN Special Rapporteur on adequate housing as a component of the right to an adequate standard of living, and on the right to non-discrimination in this context

Mr Léo Heller, UN Special Rapporteur on the right to water