No. 30/2017 (MMG/HR/28/3)

The Embassy and Permanent Mission of the Republic of Mauritius to the United Nations and other International Organizations in Geneva presents its compliments to the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and has the honour to acknowledge receipt of the Note dated 11 January 2017 relating to the Human Rights Council resolution 20/2 on "Conscientious objection to military service".

The correspondence was submitted for the consideration of the relevant Mauritius authorities, which have indicated that there is no compulsory military service in the Republic of Mauritius.

The Embassy and Permanent Mission of the Republic of Mauritius to the United Nations and other International Organizations in Geneva avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights the assurances of its highest consideration.
