

Training course on Human Rights at International Borders

Introductory session Content

- Welcoming learners
- Introducing the training course
- Introducing the learners
- Course overview
- Terms of engagement
- Additional information

The training team

- [Name, function]
- [Name, function]
- [Name, function]
- [Add as necessary]

Goal and learning objectives of the training course

1. Identify and apply relevant human rights standards to different aspects of border security and management.
2. Recognize and consider the situations faced by individuals at borders, particularly those who are in vulnerable situations, including irregular migrants.
3. Apply a gender-responsive approach to daily work in border security and management.
4. Analyse institutional policies and mechanisms of border authorities and other governance structures from a human rights perspective; discuss strategies to enhance human rights compliance

Approach adopted

Focus on human rights and migrants at international borders, in particular:

- Migrants in vulnerable situations
- Gender considerations
- Human rights are fundamental to security measures, including counter-terrorism

Icebreaker exercise – People Bingo

Mingle – walk around – introduce yourselves

- How many people can you match to the characteristics on the bingo card?
- Put a name, initial or signature for each one.
- Who will get the most?
- Shout BINGO when you fill 5 boxes across, down or diagonally.

Course Overview: Day 1

Session 1: Introduction to human rights

Session 2: Migrants in vulnerable situations at international borders

Session 3: Ensuring human rights in interception, rescue and immediate assistance

Evaluation and feedback

Course Overview: Day 2

Recap of learning points from Day 1

Session 4: Ensuring human rights-based screening and interviewing at international borders

Evaluation and feedback

Course Overview: Day 3

Recap of learning points from Day 2

Session 5: Avoiding detention and inadequate conditions of detention

Session 6: Human rights-based return

Session 7: Wrap up of training course

Final evaluation of the course

Distribution of certificates

Terms of engagement – Let's agree

1. To be on time
2. To avoid using mobile phones and laptops
3. To ask questions
4. To respect each other's opinions
5. To respect confidentiality – but to share good practices
6. Other

Additional information

- Course folder
- Daily course evaluations
- Parking lot (pending matters)
- Gaps and challenges board (matters outside participants' control)
- Administration/housekeeping

Questions?