* As at 19 October.

<sup>1</sup> The Bahamas' contribution received and registered in 2020 ($2,000) is meant to support the Fund over 2020-2021 ($1,000/year).

<sup>2</sup> China made an unallocated contribution to OHCHR in December 2018, which was registered as such in the Human Rights Report 2018. However, China decided in October 2019 to allocate the 2018 contribution retroactively, including an amount of $100,000 to this Trust Fund. China decided to renew its support with a similar contribution in 2019, which will appear in the Human Rights Report 2019. Hence, although only the 2019 contribution can be reported in the above table, China's total support to this Trust Fund amounts to $200,000 (as at February 2020).

<sup>4</sup> Switzerland provided a contribution of $25,000 in 2016 to support the participation of delegates of LDCs and SIDS in the HRC 10th anniversary session, which was recorded under another Trust Fund with the rest of its contribution in support of activities related to the 10th anniversary of the HRC.
