

OHCHR Expert Consultation on the practical application of the UNGPs to the activities of technology companies, including activities relating to artificial intelligence (HRC res. 53/29)

28-29 November 2024, Palais des Nations, Room XXIII, in-person on 28 November and hybrid format on 29 November 2024

Draft consultation agenda

Day 1	Thematic topic
10.00-10.30 CET	Opening remarks
10.30-13.00 CET	UNGP's Pillar 1: State Duty to Protect human rights with regard to adverse impacts stemming from or being linked to the activities of technology companies, including activities relating to AI Part 1: Regulatory developments Part 2: Policy incentives
13.00-15.00 CET	Break
15.00-16.30 CET	UNGP's Pillar 2: Corporate Responsibility to respect human rights in the context of activities of technology companies, including activities relating to AI <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Core expectations towards corporate human rights due diligence with regard to AI • Challenges for human rights due diligence specific to AI
16.30-18.00 CET	UNGP's Pillar 3: Accountability and remedy for the human rights harms resulting from the use of technologies, and in particular AI
Day 2
9.30-11.00 CET	Human Rights Due Diligence for AI across diverse geographies with a view to integrating diverse stakeholders/affected communities and people
11.00-12.00 CET	Gender, AI and the role of business
12.00-13.00 CET	The investment ecosystem and its role in incentivizing corporate respect for human rights in the technology sector, in particular AI
13.00 – 13.15 CET	Next steps and closing