Subject: 2030 Agenda and human rights: Best practices, challenges and lessons learned on integrated approaches on the protection and promotion of human rights and the implementation of the 2030 Agenda

The Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions to the United Nations Office at Geneva and has the honour to inform them of the online consultation on “the 2030 Agenda and Human Rights”.

Human Rights Council resolution 43/19 on “the promotion and protection of human rights and the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development” requested the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to prepare “a report on best practices, challenges and lessons learned concerning integrated approaches to the promotion and protection of human rights and the implementation of the 2030 Agenda at the national level by States, relevant United Nations and regional human rights mechanisms, United Nations agencies, funds and programmes, national human rights institutions and civil society organizations, taking into account previous reports of the Office relating to the implementation of the 2030 Agenda”, and to present it at the 51st session of the Human Rights Council in September 2022.

OHCHR invites Member States to submit its inputs to this report through a short online survey available at the below link:

<http://ohchr-survey.unog.ch/index.php/977144?lang=en>

Please submit the survey before Friday, 27 May 2022 at 6 p.m. Geneva time. For any questions, please write to doris.schmitz-meiners@un.org.

The Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Missions to the United Nations Office at Geneva the assurances of its highest consideration.
