7.3.4 The Initiator, if appointed from the same Management Area, must be of equal or higher rank than the alleged transgressor. If appointed from another Management Area, the Initiator need not be of equal or higher rank than the alleged transgressor, but competency shall be the determining factor.

7.3.5 The employer and the employee charged with misconduct may agree that the disciplinary hearing will be chaired by an arbitrator from the relevant Sectoral Bargaining Council appointed by the council. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding and only open to review in terms of the Labour Relations Act, 1995. All the provisions applicable to disciplinary hearings in terms of this Code will apply for purposes of these hearings. The Employer will be responsible to pay the costs of the arbitrator.

7.3.11 The chair will read the notice for the record and start the hearing.

7.3.12 The representative of the employer will lead evidence on the conduct giving rise to the hearing. The employee or the employee's representative may question any witness introduced by the representative of the employer.

7.3.13 The employee will be given an opportunity to lead evidence. The representative of the employer may question the witnesses.

7.3.14 The chair may ask any witness questions for clarification.

7.3.15 If the chair decides that the employee has committed misconduct, the chair must inform the employee of the finding and the reasons for it.

7.3.16 Before deciding on a sanction, the chair must give the employee an opportunity to present relevant circumstances in mitigation. The representative of the employer may also present aggravating circumstances.

7.3.17 The chair must communicate the final outcome of the hearing to the employee within five working days after the conclusion of the disciplinary enquiry, and the outcome must be recorded on the employee's personal file/G102 and PERSAL.

7.4 Sanctions

7.4.2 The employer shall not implement the sanction during an appeal by the employee.

7.4.3 The chairperson must communicate the final outcome of the hearing to the employee within five (5) working days after the conclusion of the disciplinary hearing, and the outcome must be recorded on the personal file (and the relevant Registration file and PERSAL records (and G102) must be updated) of the employee.

8.8.3 Confirm the verdict and sanction of the disciplinary proceeding; or

8.8.4 Order a hearing de novo i.e. a complete re-hearing by a new impartial chairperson, only if found that the initial hearing contained gross procedural errors that were material to the employee's dismissal.

8.9 The appeal authority must provide reasons for his/her decision.

8.10 The Department must finalise appeals within 30 working days from the date of the receipt of the appeal, failing which, in cases where the employee is on suspension after dismissal; he/she (after the expiry of the 30 working days) must resume duties immediately and await the outcome of the appeal. The Area Commissioner shall decide on the placement of the employee.
