

HUMAN RIGHTS ADVOCACY CENTRE

---

DC.3.58.01

April 04, 2012

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Dear Sir/Madam,

HRAC AND AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL GHANA'S SUBMISSION FOR THE UNIVERSAL PERIODIC REVIEW TO THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

The Human Rights Advocacy Centre (HRAC) is a non-profit, independent, non-partisan research and advocacy organization set up to advance and protect human rights in Ghana.

The HRAC was incorporated on September 9, 2008 under the Companies Code, 1963, and duly registered with the Department of Social Welfare (DSW – 4161).

We are pleased to submit herewith, a joint submission highlighting key human rights issues in Ghana including Commercial Sex Workers, LGBT rights, the practice of Forced Evictions, Gender Based Violence against Girls, Mental Health, HIV & Aids, Right to Information, Death Penalty and Refugee Rights.

Please accept our contribution to your review.

Yours truly,

---

Nana Oye Lithur
Executive Director