RE: The Navajo Nation's Universal Periodic Review Submission

To Whom It May Concern:

The Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission was established to operate as a clearinghouse entity to administratively address discriminatory actions against citizens of the Navajo Nation, and to interface with the local, state and federal governments, and with national and international human rights organizations in accordance with its plan of operation, applicable laws and regulations of the Navajo Nation.

So on behalf of the Navajo Nation and its citizens, the Office submits its Universal Periodic Review ("UPR") report, as a stakeholder, to the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights when the United States of America is under review in the month of November 2010 for its human rights record.

If you or your office may have any questions or concerns regarding the Navajo Nation's UPR report, please feel free to contact me directly at leonardgorman@navajo.org or at telephone number (928) 871-7436.

Sincerely,

Leonard Gorman, Executive Director
Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission
